

Making Florida a Zero-Tolerance State for Human Trafficking

It's Our Business.

Attorney General Pam Bondi is joining forces with Florida's business community to stop human trafficking, and she invites you to join the cause by attending a workshop.

Businesses are uniquely positioned to help stop human trafficking. For example, businesses can ensure there is no human trafficking within their supply chains and train employees to recognize the signs of human trafficking and report suspected cases. This workshop is intended to help businesses develop their own, voluntary plans, and it is the first of many workshops that Attorney General Pam Bondi will be holding throughout Florida.

WHO: Attorney General Pam Bondi, Terry Coonan with FSU's Center for the Advancement of Human Rights, Florida Hospital Leadership, and Orlando-area business leaders.

WHAT: 1-hour workshop on anti-human trafficking measures that businesses can voluntarily implement within their organizations to eradicate human trafficking in Florida.

WHEN: Monday, Jan. 27, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

WHERE: Florida Hospital, Warner Auditorium-Ginsburg Tower, 2328 Alden Rd., Orlando, Florida, 32803

Please RSVP to StopHumanTrafficking@myfloridalegal.com at your earliest convenience and no later than Wed, Jan. 22.

If you have any questions, please contact Jenn Meale at 850-245-0150 or Nilda Pedrosa or Matt Dunagan at 850-245-0200. For more information, visit MyFloridaLegal.com.

