

Legal Services®
of NORTH FLORIDA
HOPE. JUSTICE. FOR ALL.

Present:

Finding Justice for Human Trafficking Survivors: A Special Focus on Labor Trafficking

CLE Credit Provided

Thursday, January 31, 2019

11 a.m. (Registration) Program: 11:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.

LUNCH PROVIDED

Florida State University College of Law

Rotunda 107 Roberts Hall ~ 425 W. Jefferson St., Tallahassee

A viewing of the Frontline film “Trafficked in America” will be followed by expert panel discussions on issues raised in the film and MORE.

Topics will include:

- Local cases, survivor needs, and resources
- Relevant laws, policies, and programs
- The overlap between labor and sex trafficking
- Legal rights and remedies for trafficking survivors and
- Human trafficking responses post-Hurricane Michael

Who should come: Attorneys, students, community members, hospitality industry, justice system representatives including law enforcement and prosecution, farmers and food purveyors, human resources personnel, state agencies, advocates, and service providers, and all who have interest.

Participants will leave knowing what they and the community can do to take action, raise awareness, and bring justice to trafficking survivors.

Cost: Free; $75 only for lawyers seeking CLE credit; CLE scholarship available

Space is limited! Register online at:

<https://www.surviveandthriveadvocacy.org/finding-justice-for-human-trafficking-survivors-labor-trafficking/>

For questions about the program and CLE scholarships, please contact Robin Hassler Thompson, Executive Director, STAC: 850-597-2080 robin@surviveandthriveadvocacy.org.